Orange Shirt Day is commemorated on September 30th.

"This day was to commemorate the residential school experience, to witness & honor the healing journey of the survivors & their families....Orange Shirt Day is a legacy of this project...former student Phyllis (Jack) Webstad told her story of her first day at residential school when her shiny new orange shirt, bought by her grandmother, was taken from her as a 6 year old girl....Orange Shirt Day opens the door to global conversation....a day for survivors to be reaffirmed that they matter, and so do those that have been effected...Every Child Matters, even if they are an adult, from now on. The date was chosen because it was the time of year in which children were taken from their homes to residential schools." - Taken from the website orangeshirtday.org
